

Tarves Walkabout Quiz

TARVES HERITAGE PROJECT

How well do you know Tarves? Enjoy a stroll around the village and look for the answers to this quiz at the same time. Handy Hint- some of the answers are in Tarves Heritage Centre, come on in we'd love to see you!

Opening hours Thursday, Friday and Sunday 1-4.00pm. April to October

www.tarvesheritage.org.uk

How many men from Tarves and the surrounding area are recorded on the War Memorial for the First World War? _____

The Melvin Hall was built in _____

How many green lampposts like this one are in the The Square? _____

These old tombstones rest against the Kirk. How many skulls can you see on them? _____

Tarves is on the National Cycle Route 1. It starts in Dover but where does it end? _____

Who is this man? _____

Who gifted the Library Room to the people of Tarves _____ and in what year? _____

The Murly Tuck Café is in The Square. What does Murly Tuck mean? _____

This view of The Square was painted in what year? _____

When was the Aberdeen Arms established? _____

How long was George Melvin Headteacher at Tarves School? _____

What building is this plaque on? _____

What was the name of the family who lived in this house and what is there now? _____

What is this and what City name is written on it? _____

What time is the collection from this postbox on a weekday? _____

The "Tarvas Bowl" featured on which TV Programme? _____

This clock was made by a man who lived just outside Tarves, what was his name? _____

This school opened in? _____

When was Duthie Road widened? _____

(Handy hint the date is on this plaque as you leave the village going to Craigdam)

The Queen's Room was added on to the Melvin Hall in commemoration of which Jubilee celebration? _____

What lifesaving equipment is beside this? _____

Fill in the blanks

We hope you enjoyed your walk around Tarves. To check your answers please ask one of our friendly volunteers at the Heritage Centre. There are several other walks in and around the village just ask our volunteers for more information.

Registered Scottish Charity No. 21511

